

Homographs

The words in the box are called homographs. Homographs are words that have two or more different definitions. Look at the definitions and complete them using one of the words from the box.

bark	tear	bat	right
rose	wave	sink	trunk
park	row

1. The main stem of a tree or the space in the back of the car to store things. _____
2. To rip something or a fluid that comes from the eye.

3. The outer layer of a tree or the sound a dog makes.

4. A flying mammal or the instrument we use to hit the ball in baseball. _____
5. A public place or to stop the car in a space. _____
6. A type of flower or the past of the verb rise. _____
7. To go under water or the place where we put dirty dishes in.

8. A gesture that means hello or good bye or the movements of the ocean. _____
9. Synonym with correct or the opposite of left. _____
10. A line of seats or to move a boat in the water.
